From the Chair...

2019

Tina Shaw
2019 Campaign Chair

Dear Friend,

The United Way of Marion County plays a vital role in creating positive change within our communities. We believe in working together to achieve results, but it takes each of us doing our part to bring about community change. ONE person can have a tremendous impact.

Your support is critical to achieving our community fundraising goal of $475,000. Our United Way campaign provides funding to support 29 programs at 22 health and human service agencies in Marion County. These agencies are working daily to address the growing challenges faced by individuals and families in our communities. Whether it is providing affordable healthcare, educational opportunities, or assistance in a time of crisis, these agencies and programs are changing lives every day.

Your ONE gift is joined with hundreds of others to help achieve true community impact. No gift is too small or insignificant. We can assure you that every dollar raised stays right here in Marion County.

ONE person can make a difference. Join me and Be the ONE.
